

Presidents

Sort the presidential powers and functions into the six categories.

- Represents the United States on the international stage
- Executes and enforces federal laws
- Proposes legislation to Congress

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

- Makes decisions that impact fiscal policies, trade agreements, and more
- Has the power to deploy troops and make military decisions
- Embodies the symbolic and ceremonial role of the nation
- Conducts diplomacy, negotiates treaties, and establishes foreign policy

Presidents

Chief Executive

•

•

Commander-in-Chief

•

•

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

Chief of State

•

•

Economic Leader

•

•
