

Scarcity and Choices

---

Sort the scenarios into bartering and scarcity and write them where they belong.

Bartering	Scarcity

Scarcity and Choices

---

Ariana wants to buy a rare action figure toy, but the store has run out of it.

Keith trades stickers with Cole to finish his collection.

Jack trades four small marbles to get two big marbles from Ted.

In the school playground, there are only two swings, but many kids want to swing.

Anna and Martha both want the same limited-edition comic book, and there's only one copy left at the bookstore.

Sarah swaps her sandwich for Max's pretzels at recess.

Amanda trades her gently used toys, books, and school supplies with Liam to get new items she wants.

A popular band is coming to town, and there are only 500 tickets available for the concert. However, 1,000 people want to attend the concert.