

Third Conditionals

Third conditional – Main clause: Would have/Could have with past participle

If clause: Past perfect

Example: What would you have bought if you hadn't forgotten your wallet?

I would have bought a sweater if I hadn't forgotten my wallet.

Use
con

Preview

1) W
—
2) If
—
3) If
—
4) W

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

4) Where could Hannan have gone if she had had a few days off?

5) What could you have done if you had missed the train?

6) If Gabe hadn't scored the winning goal, what would've happened?
