

Main Idea

Write the main idea and three supporting details for the passage.

When an emergency happens, it is crucial to keep a cool head. One must not panic, think clearly, and make decisions. An emergency might be a car accident, a tornado, or even a power outage at school. When something like this happens, it is best to evaluate those who need the most help, get them the help they need, and move on to helping others. Emergencies can be fri
